8.05 The KCFA President shall hire all employees of the KCFA. All employment relationships shall be by written contracts of employment between the KCFA and each employee, signed by the President or Vice President on behalf of the KCFA, and the employee. The Executive Board only shall decide if, when and how the KCFA will lawfully terminate employment contracts to which the KCFA is a party.

8.06 The Executive Board may cause the KCFA to affiliate with other labour and/or academic staff organizations for the purpose of advancing the objectives of the KCFA.

8.07 The Executive Board has the exclusive authority to cause the Association to bargain collectively on behalf of the academic staff and to bind them by a collective agreement. The Executive Board may delegate the collective bargaining function to the Negotiating Committee pursuant to Section 10.01.04. The Executive Board and/or Negotiating Committee shall inform the Board of Governors at the outset of each round of collective bargaining, in writing, that the Executive Board's agreement to Collective Agreement amendments and renewals is subject to ratification by the Membership and individuals who have held sessional/Language Instruction for Newcomer to Canada (LINC) Instructor academic appointments within the year prior to the ratification vote].

8.07.01 The ratification vote shall be by Regular Resolution, conducted by a secret paper ballot, or secret electronic ballot, three to five business days following a Special Meeting called to consider the proposals.

8.07.02 Notwithstanding anything else in these Bylaws, the President or delegate has the exclusive authority to cause the KCFA to enter into mid-term Letters of Agreement with the Board of Governors, which may have the effect of amending the Collective Agreement, without being subject to Membership ratification.

8.07.04 Notwithstanding anything else in these Bylaws, all eligible Members (including Members not in good standing) may vote in Collective Agreement amendment and renewal ratification votes.

8.08 The KCFA, through the Executive Board or delegate, shall designate one or more individuals to be responsible for ensuring that KCFA complies with the Personal Information Protection Act, SA 2003, c. P-6.5 ("PIPA"). The process for development of PIPA policies and practices shall be set out in Policy, and the KCFA shall develop and follow policies and practices that are reasonable for KCFA to meet its obligations under PIPA.

8.09 The KCFA, through the Executive Board or delegate, shall make such appointments and nominations as statutorily required or enable through procedures set out in Policy, including:

8.09.01 Nomination of one Academic Staff Member to the Board of Governors pursuant to Post-Secondary Learning Act, RSA 2003, c P-19.5, s 44(2) (which academic staff member shall not be: (1) a member of the Executive Board Officer of the KCFA, or (2) a person who has the responsibility, or the joint responsibility with others, of negotiating the terms and conditions of service of Members with the Board of Governors, on behalf of KCFA).

8.09.02 Appointments to committees created by the Board of Governors.

8.09.03 The election to Academic Council of not more than 10 academic staff members by the KCFA pursuant to Post-Secondary Learning Act, RSA 2003, c P-19.5, s 47.

8.10 The KCFA shall indemnify and save harmless Officers of the Executive Board in relation to civil actions or administrative complaints against them personally for erroneous acts or omissions committed within the scope of their KCFA duties, acting in good faith. Such indemnification shall include reasonable legal defense costs, and any damages awarded against the Executive Board Officer personally. Indemnification shall not be extended to Executive Board Officers' willful misconduct or neglect, or to conduct outside the scope of their KCFA duties. The Executive Board may cause the KCFA to purchase insurance to provide errors and omissions coverage to Officers of the Executive Board equal to or better than, and in place of, the indemnification contemplated in this clause, if available for purchase at a reasonable cost.

8.11 The KCFA shall maintain minutes, books and records at its primary office location. Subject to PIPA, Members may inspect the KCFA minutes, books and records during normal business hours at KCFA's primary office location. Pursuant to PIPA general (non-Officer) Members shall not be allowed to inspect KCFA minutes, books or records when such inspection would result in the disclosure of any "personal information" collected and held for use by the KCFA, including but not limited to: "personal information" of employees of the KCFA; "personal information" of Members and Grievors represented by the KCFA; any other individual's "personal information" collected and used by the KCFA in the course of carrying out its business and affairs.
